The Ultimate Sacrifice

Remembrance Sunday

Sunday 11th November 2018

INTRODUCTION

This Sunday marked the centenary of the end of World War One. Across our services, in different ways we marked the occasion and thought of the men and women across the years who have chosen to lay their lives on the line for freedom and for the people they love.

READ

John 15: 12-16
Romans 5: 7-9

DISCUSS

1. As we remember men and women who've given up so much for something they cared about, it's good to think about what matters to us. What would you fight for?

2. What would fighting look like? What would you be prepared to do?

3. In John 15, Jesus talks about great love being sacrificial. Who are those people you would sacrifice for?

4. What would you be prepared to do for people that you love? What would you give up?

5. We live in a world where friendship is often undervalued and people enter into relationships based on what they will get out of them. How do you see this in the world around you?

6. God doesn't just want us to give out, He wants us to receive too. Where do you have relationships where you can flourish, be vulnerable and honest.

7. As a group how can you build trust and support?

8. Why not take some time to pray about some of those things you're passionate about and fight for them in prayer?
